

CHAPTER 3

RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE BODY

IMPLEMENTING THE STATE STATISTICS AND BODIES IMPLEMENTING THE ADMINISTRATIVE STATISTICS

Article 15. Rights of the Body Implementing the State Statistics

Body implementing the state statistics in the framework of its competence has the right:

to receive reliable statistical data from the providers of statistical information according to the order established by the Law and other legal acts;

to receive the required statistical data from the providers of statistical information on a contract basis, including citizens on their social and demographic situation, as well as households;

to prepare and present appropriate conclusions and recommendations based on the analysis of the social, economic and demographic processes;

to explain issues related to use and comments on the statistical information and data;

in order to provide the reliability, completeness of data, information (initial or summarized form) and maintenance of the order of data calculation, to implement the checking by the established order. In case of misrepresentations, it is necessary to instruct to liquidate them and to introduce relevant corrections in the initial and summarized statistical data; to examine the issues related to the statistics and accounting ;

to present statistical, analytical, informational, publishing and other services foreseen by the regulation on a contract basis outside the program, according to the order determined by law and other legal acts;

to adopt the departmental normative legal acts foreseen by given Law and other legal acts regarding the implementation of statistical work and completion of forms of the documents mentioned in the second part of the 14 Article of given Law;

to conclude the treaties on co-operation with bodies of the other countries implementing statistics and international statistical organizations according to the order determined by Law and other legal acts.

Article 16. Obligations of the Body Implementing the State Statistics

Body implementing the state statistics is obliged:

to organize execution of work foreseen by the Program;

to provide the information related to the economic, social, demographic and environmental situation to the President of the Republic, Government, National Assembly, as well as other state bodies determined by the Program, according to the order foreseen by the Program;

to ensure the accessibility to the summarized state statistical information;

to preserve the principles of anonymity of the collected statistical data;

not to publish and disseminate the initial statistical information;

to present the information available at the databank to the legal person, state establishment or citizen on their apply;

to provide the units presenting the state statistical information with the statistical reporting forms and instructions free of charge, and to inform them on terms, periodicity of submission of the statistical reports as required.

Article 17. Rights of the Bodies Implementing the Administrative Statistics

Bodies implementing the administrative statistics according to the order determined by the laws and other legal acts have the right:

to receive necessary data and information for the maintenance of administrative registers from legal persons, state establishments and individual entrepreneurs; to publish the results of implemented by them information functions (observation of the administrative character) mentioned the source.

Article 18. Obligations of the Bodies Implementing the Administrative Statistics

Bodies implementing the administrative statistics are obliged to preserve the requirements of the legislation during the implementation of observations and other work.